

STUDENT

- Features assessment tools for educators, and dedicated resource guides to provide blueprints for advanced learning
- Text can be translated into 100+ languages or read aloud with our human-sounding text-to-speech feature
- Virtually explore famous attractions all around the world, courtesy of our 360-degree photographs and videos

Curriculum-aligned math and science games for elementary and middle school students are featured on popular articles for use in the classroom, at home, or remote learning.

Behind the Headlines

Get the scoop! Our editors break down the news and current events. From Ancient People to Race Relations, there is a topic for everyone!

Biography Center

Choose from 10,000+ biographies of actors, civil rights leaders, inventors, painters, and more.

Tools & Settings

Includes options to print, email, and save articles. You can also adjust the text size, view citations, highlight a search term, translate the text, or define a word.

Google and Microsoft Integration

Allows for collaboration with Google Classroom, Google Drive, Microsoft OneDrive, and My World Book integration.